

Foundations

What Classes should you take?

Portfolio Review

When should you take it, what you should take BEFORE you need to take it, and why you need it

Portfolio Review

(Art 298)

An evaluation of an individual students' foundations work by Department of Art + Design Faculty

Why should you

Portfolio Review is a chance to show your skills and readiness to advance into your chosen concentration.

When should you

Ideally, students should participate in their review the fall semester of their sophomore year

You are ready for portfolio review when:

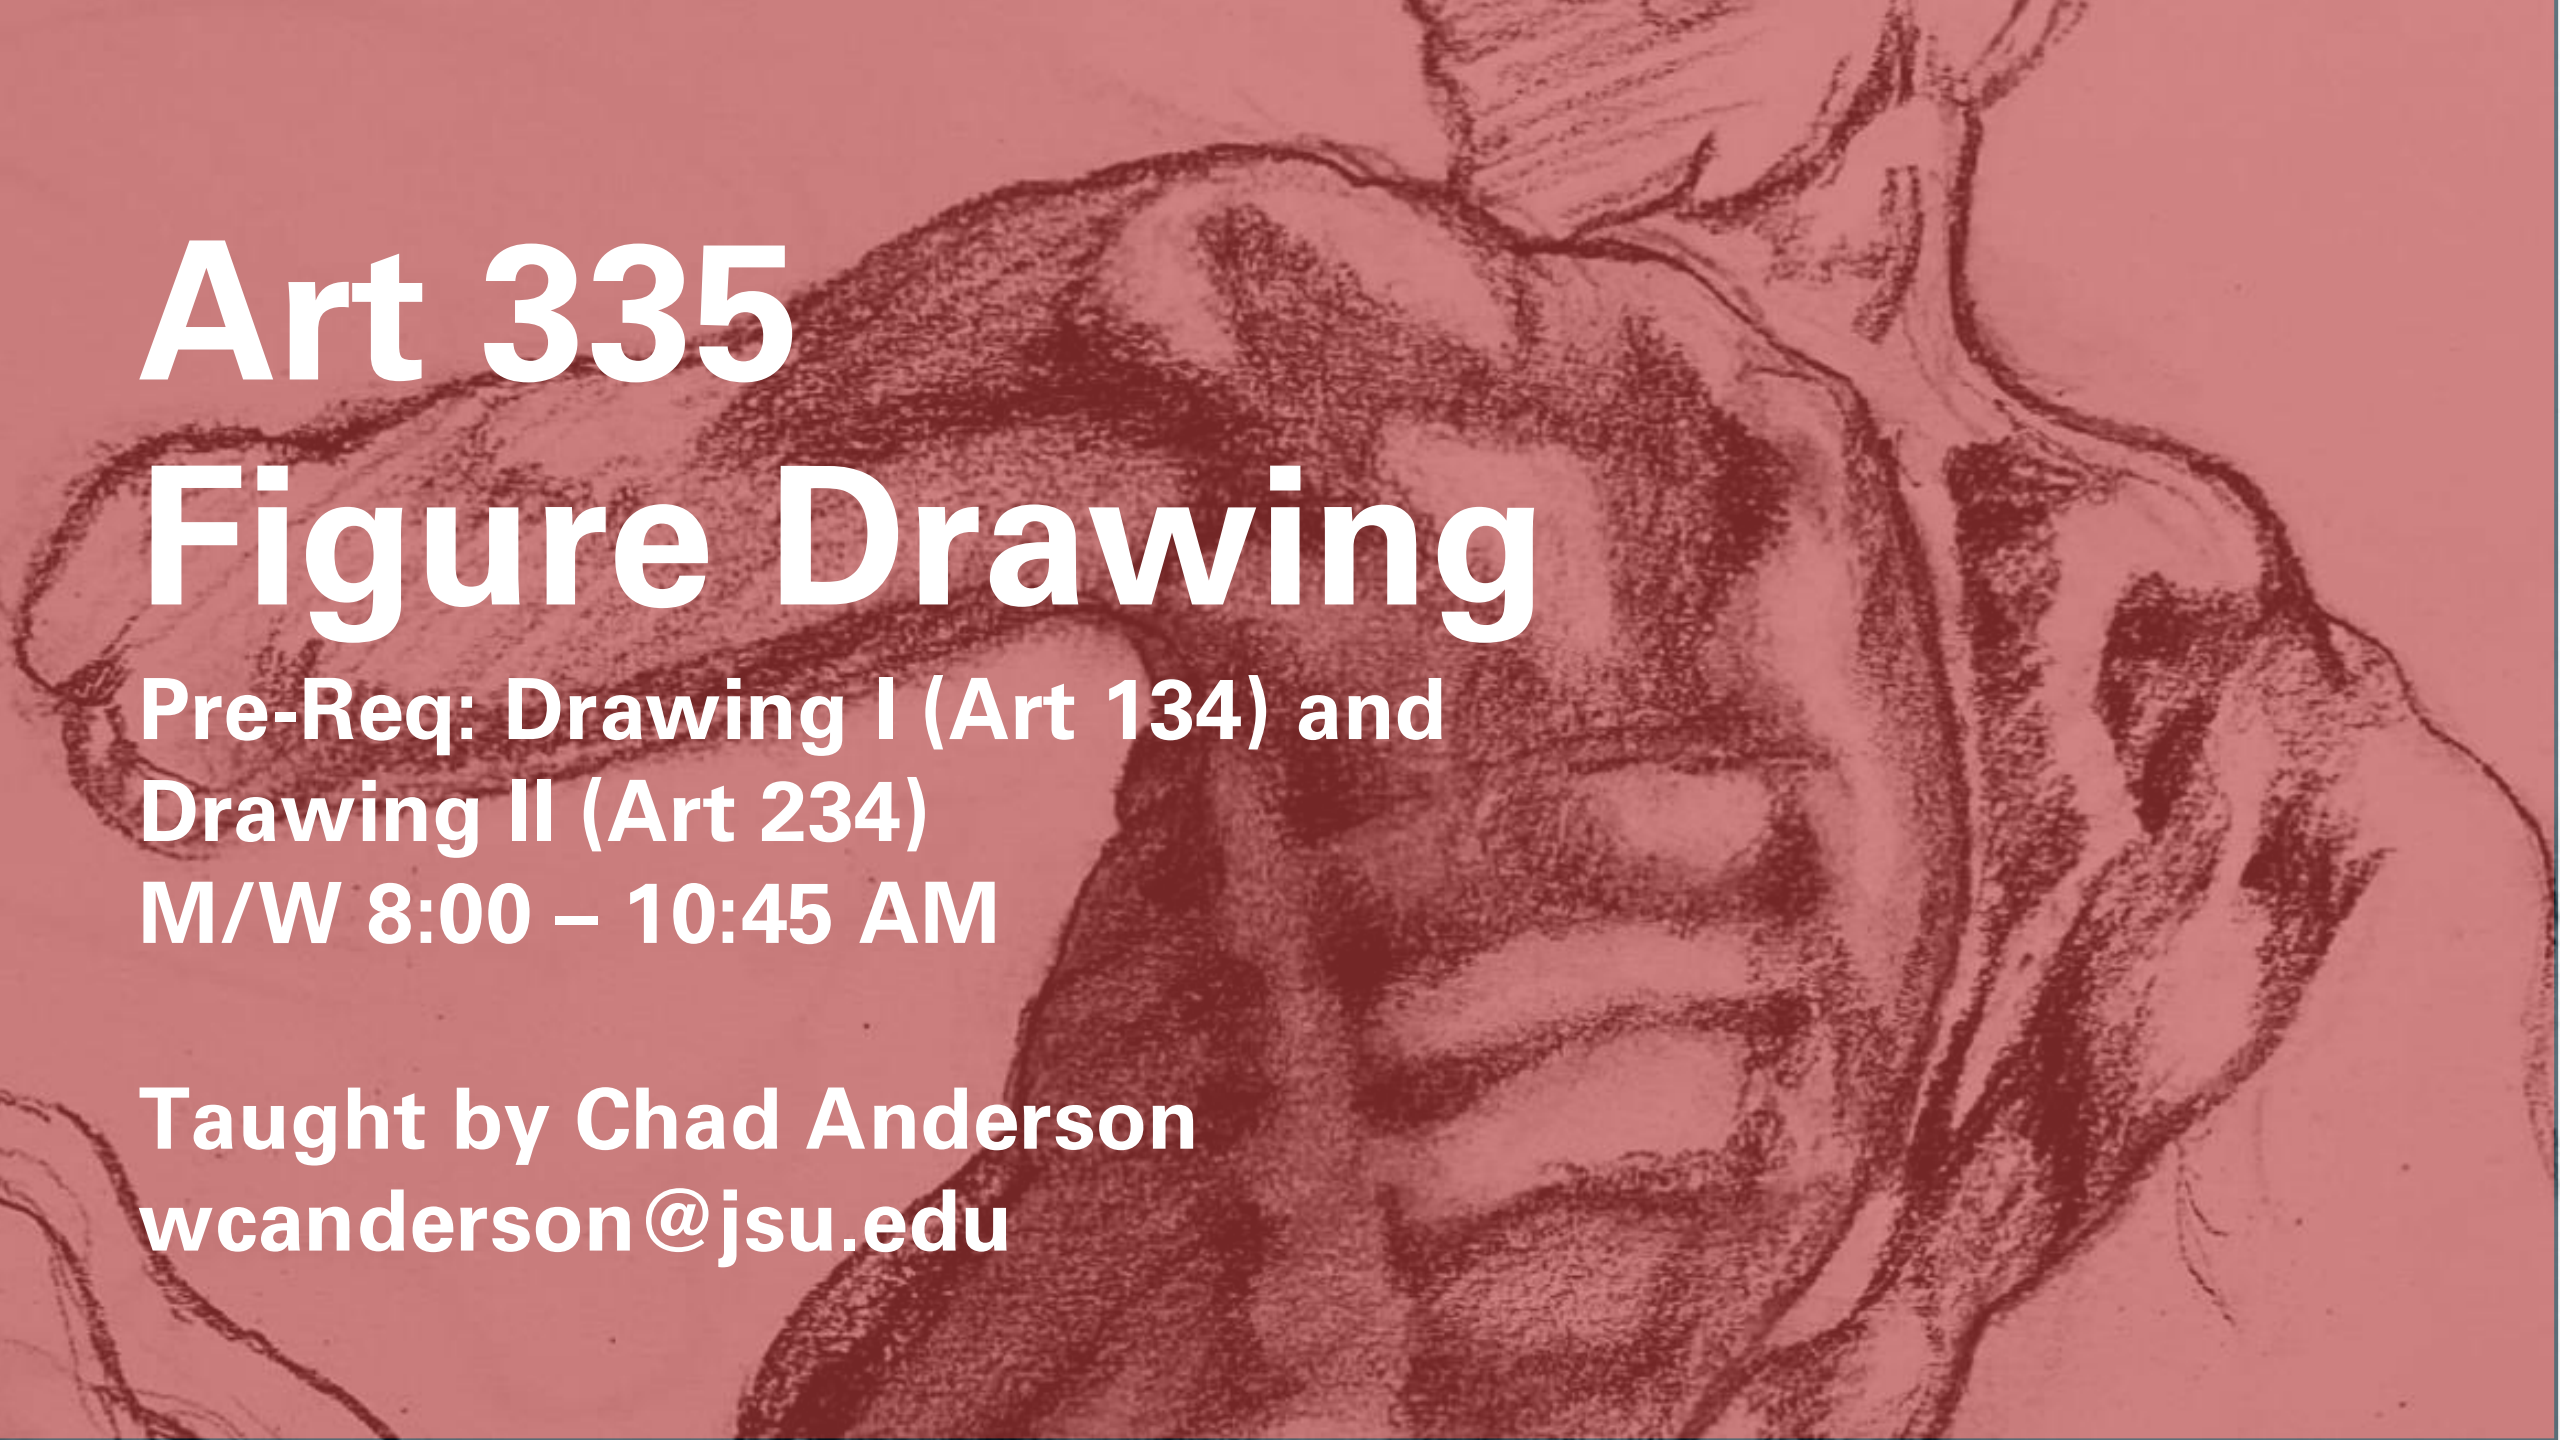

- Completed Drawing I (Art 134)
- Completed Drawing II (Art 234)
- Completed Design I (Art 233)
- Completed Design II (Art 240)
- Completed one Art History Survey (Art 111 or 112)

You are ready for portfolio review when:

- Enrolled in the first course in your chosen concentration

Review Reminders

- You will need work for faculty members to review
  - at least 2 works from each Foundation Class
- Take care of your work, please don't dispose, destroy, or abandon it
- Store it properly and somewhere you can get it
  - NOT in the art studios

Art 335
Figure Drawing

Pre-Req: Drawing I (Art 134) and Drawing II (Art 234)
M/W 8:00 – 10:45 AM

Taught by Chad Anderson
wcanderson@jsu.edu

Models Needed

$8.25 per hour for students
$45.00 per class for non-students

Questions, Concerns, or Interests

- Contact me
  - ntisdale@jsu.edu
  - Hammond Hall, 202B